

Builders

A STUDY THROUGH
THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

Week 1 - The People God Uses

GROUP QUESTIONS

Read Acts 17:24-28

- Take some time to dwell on the idea that God give life, breath, and everything to each person. List some of the things we may take for granted that God has given us.
- What does it mean that God has determined allotted times and boundaries for us? What is His reason for this?
- How might we seek to live and move IN Jesus more this week?

God Uses Ordinary People

Read 2 Corinthians 4:7

- What is the treasure we hold?
- We are the jars of clay in this verse. What does that symbolize and why?

God Uses Heartbroken People

Read Nehemiah 1:4

- How has your heart been broken FOR the people in your life?
- In what ways could God uses your heartbrokenness for their good?

God Uses Builders

Read Nehemiah 2:5

- Take a moment to observe where God has placed you (Acts 17), how he has made you (2 Corinthians 4:7), and who/ what He has placed you around (Nehemiah 1:4) and consider what it is He might be asking you to build/rebuild.
- How could your group work together to be building? (Consider the upcoming LVWKND on Nov. 7)
